

PRIVATE MUSIC LESSON PROGRAM

at MOTION STUDIO

No matter your age or current music level, our private music lesson program is a perfect fit!

Everyone learns at a different pace. That is why private one-on-one instruction is a great way to learn. We make sure your lessons are filled with quality information that will help you excel. Your success is our number one priority.

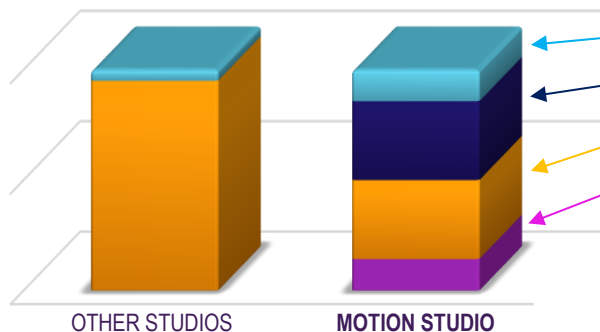

Tell your teacher what your goals are, and we can help you achieve them, whether it's learning music for school, for fun, for a band, or just an enjoyable hobby.

Lessons available in Piano, Guitar, and Voice. We offer optional performance opportunities throughout the year.

- ✓ We hold ourselves to the highest quality standards.
- ✓ Our teachers are experienced and patient.

Our mission is to empower students with excellent instruction!

Why your lesson time at Motion Studio is the best?

Where other studios only focus on teaching songs, we teach our students the proper foundation of knowledge and technique, on top of which they can shine naturally!

- Proper Warm Ups
- Technique Building & Corrections
- Full Songs & Practical Application
- Fun & Cool Down

What is expected out of the student:

The teacher will give the student enough materials to practice 15 to 30 minutes a day (depending on age and experience) at least three days a week.

Schedule – Costs – Tuition

Lessons run 30 minutes, once a week. Cost per lesson is $21. The total for the coming month will be collected on the 1st.

There will be a book/materials fee of approximately $25 upon enrollment to cover practice materials the teacher deems appropriate for the student's skill level that the student can learn from and practice with at home. As they finish their materials or books, you will be in charge of working directly with the teacher to purchase further levels and materials.
